BLOCKADED.

Every Household in Bryan Should Know How to Resist It.

The back aches because the kidneys are blocked.

Help the kidneys with their work. The back will ache no more.

Lots of proof that Doan's Kidney Pills do this.

It's the best proof, for it comes from this vicinity.

H. R. Overhall, Franklin, Texas, says: "I was subject to attacks of kidney complaint for several years, irregular passages of the kidney secretions being the worst feature. Hearing of Doan's Kidney Pills, I procured a box and after taking a few doses, I noticed an improvement. Before long I was cured and since then I have not been obliged to take any kidney remedy. I have great confidence in Doan's Kidney Pills."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Company, Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

Ancient Greek Training.

The manner in which the Athenians brought up their children is worth remembering. At seven years of age the Athenian lad entered the palestra, which was essentially a playground. All the first and better half of the day was spent in gymnastics, dancing, games and play. In the afternoon there were singing, some writing, some reading, all in the open air, and then came a long period of play again. Such was the schooling of the Greek lad up to the age of ten or eleven, and it did not differ essentially up to the age of sixteen, except in the severity of the exercises. And yet the world has not ceased to marvel at the results of the Greek education. It produced the highest type of man, physically and intellectually, that the world has ever seen, which Galton says was as far in advance of the modern Englishman as the modern Englishman is in advance of the native African. In physical beauty, courage and patriotism, in philosophy, literature, architecture and art, the Greeks have been the unsurpassed models of the ages and are still the inspiration of our schools today. But they placed the emphasis upon hygiene, exercise, games and play, which are too much neglected in these days.—Kansas City Star.

EAT CORNED BEEF, CABBAGE, PORK AND ONIONS FOR DINNER.

Do you crave for a good old fashioned New England boiled dinner?

Corned beef and cabbage, and pork and beets and onions and turnips?

There may be a few readers of the Eagle who will turn up their noses and sniff contemptuously, but if they do it's because they never faced the good old kind like mother used to make.

But there are thousands of people in this world who won't eat a New England boiled dinner because they can't digest it.

And these people ought to know at once that Mi-on-a tablets, the quick acting and guaranteed cure for indigestion, will put the stomach in such a clean and perfectly healthy condition in a few days that they will be able to eat and digest a New England boiled dinner or any other kind of a dinner.

E. J. Jenkins sells Mi-on-a for 50 cents a large box and he guarantees it to cure indigestion, catarrh of the stomach or any chronic or acute stomach trouble.

Mi-on-a is a wonder worker. It instantly stops distress after eating; turns a sour stomach into a sweet one; stops belching and heartburn. Mi-on-a is sold by leading druggists everywhere.

HYOMEI

A FRIGHTFUL SCRAP IN MYERS' HARDWARE STORE

The gas stove and a Sadiron had a heated discussion.

The gas stove claimed it was of more use in the household than the Sadiron. The Sadiron, when pressed, denied it.

The argument grew so warm that a bar of solder began to melt, and had to be lead away. Other articles including an alarm clock, took a hand in the debate.

The nail keg got right down to brass tacks, and his arguments were very pointed.

But the hammer bit the nail on the head when it said that the Stove had a Grate Oven!

The Sadiron got real hot when he said that, and begged the dinner bell to ring the Hammer's neck. The knife who had been laying on the table, spoke sharply, and cut out the rest of the crowd.

A Cross-cut Saw showed its teeth, and said, on the level, it was the plainest bunch he ever saw. A can said that was Oil Right, too!

At this, a Mirror brightened up and said it reflected its own views.

A Tool Box got real chummy, and thought he knew more than the rest, but the Auger bit him and he shut up.

A Winchester gun loaded with Nu Black shells fired at the Oven Rack, but it was out of Range.

Things were steadily getting worse, and it looked as though there'd be a big fight, so a Broom brushed by the crowd and whisked out of the room.

A horse shoe got a skate on, and thought it was in luck. A pair of scales weighed the evidence, but didn't get tipped.

A Carving Set offered to bet that a Nutmeg was Grater than either the Stove or Sadiron. The elevator took him up.

The refrigerator looked on with a cold, icy stare, that froze the potato masher.

A Dietz Lantern began to smoke and spit, much to the disgust of the Shears. The Shears were regular cut-ups, and soon trimmed the Lantern!

The Phonographs talked so much that no record was taken of what it said.

The Stove got to laughing so much that it fell over a pipe and broke its leg. The grass cutter thought that a green joke and cried for mower. The Garden hose turned around to rubber, and got all kinked up.

In the confusion the stove pipe bumped its elbow and got black on the sides. It seemed better after a time, however, and called the coal a darn fuel.

Just at this moment J. Allen Myers came along and put a damper on the whole thing.

Full stock of the Winchester Brands of shells, Winchester, Leader, Repeater and Nu Black, they are the kind that do the work.

J. Allen Myers the Winchester Shell Man.
